PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

BY AMY POSSIDENTE

One of my favorite parts of being the HPNA President so far has been meeting and getting to know more of you, my neighbors. I have enjoyed chatting with some of you before and after our general meetings, visiting with our volunteers as we work to deliver HPNA flyers, and talking with so many of you who have generously donated your time, resources, and skills to help make our neighborhood great.

It was especially fun to have spent time with those of you who attended HPNA's first annual Movie Night in the Park. I loved seeing the children enjoy the activities at the kid's table (lawn games, bouncy balls, coloring, crafts, and more) while their parents visited with each other and sampled the $1 concessions. And everyone really seemed to relax and be entertained when the movie came on the big screen. We are so appreciative to the Parks and Rec department at Northwest Park for having made this night possible, and we hope to have another movie night again soon.

One of the hallmarks, I think, of a successful neighborhood association is connections being made between neighbors, and I see more such connections being made each day!

I hope you enjoy reading our newsletter. Wishing you and your family a wonderful summer and a Happy Fourth of July!

JUNE 17TH GENERAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

We had a great turnout at the meeting!
Thanks to everyone who attended.

Please invite one of your neighbors to the next meeting on Thursday, August 19th.

GUEST SPEAKER SUMMARY

David Anderson fascinated us with details about how the Tocobaga people's cities and towns were characterized by mounds of earth and shell and that the Jungle Prada site offers one of the largest such mounds that can be explored, along with the beautiful gardens and peacocks on the property, by signing up for one of his Discover Florida tours.

Casey Crane provided another informative report on cyber security focusing particularly on email scams and red flags often found in these emails such as lots of grammatical errors and offers that sound too good to be true.

Robert Blackmon informed us that his fundraising efforts on behalf of the Science Center on 22nd Ave. North have been successful and that the center will be saved. He also shared the news of his resignation from Council at 11:59 p.m. on January 5, 2022 due to his running for Mayor of St. Pete.

GENERAL MEETING

J.W. CATE RECREATION CENTER

GUEST SPEAKER

Rui Farias, Executive Director

St. Petersburg Museum of History

A note from our speaker:

St. Petersburg's past is a rich tale of unique and sometimes quirky stories. The conversation will provide a snapshot to a Florida much different from our own, and highlight people that could never have imagined our 21st century Sunshine City. From the arrival of the Spanish and Babe Ruth, to the truth of Al Capone's residency and the "coin flip" that got us our name, this light hearted talk will hopefully help us comprehend our city's history and recognize the achievements of those who came before us.

About me; Grew up in downtown St. Pete and spent my childhood in the Museum of History and Webb's City, as well as selling the Evening Independent outside the Open Air Post Office. Created and taught Pinellas County's only St. Pete History course at St. Pete High. Executive Director for six years.

State Representative Linda Chaney will attend.

Please send any questions or issues you wish to discuss with her to Amy Possidente at arobinson992@gmail.com so your voice can be heard in Tallahassee.

As many of us drive thru our Holiday Park neighborhood there are things that we see but don't see. Well, our neighborhood sign on the corner of 66th street and the cross street of 30th Ave was that spot.

The sign has recently shown its age between a few car bumps and the weather. Well, thanks to two business owners in our neighborhood our sign is repaired and like new.

First, John Sciandra, owner of A Plus Plastering, repaired the stucco and restored the texture. Then, Bill Riley of Bill Riley Painting had his professional painters paint the entire sign. Both companies, when approached, were willing and quickly volunteered their services to help. We thank both of these neighbors and would encourage our residents to give them a call with any stucco, painting or associated needs. Thanks, neighbors!
